

art squad is a on-going collaborative artwork set in Google Docs. Visit the following link and join the editing chaos... <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1HAJA4IC2ZFpIEle7ADefSCUAkUUOPHNfNJo4Rdq97qo/edit?usp=sharing> (art squad) began as a kind of silly idea that never seemed to go away, the idea of creating a document on Google Docs that could be shared with the art world (or even the world), that could be added, edited and deleted by anyone. Ideally, I want to create a community in a single document, using the tools that have been available to us all for over a decade.
