

<http://www.PaintByUser.com> is a real-time collaborative drawing website which allows visitors to assign a username to their virtual mark and thereby tagging their contribution on the virtual canvas. The users may also decide to change the colour and size of the line to accompany their desired username. This is seen as an evolution of life drawing, as the platform accumulates interactions between users and presents it as an ever evolving, autonomous piece of art.

